

A short story 5700 words The plane is at 3000 feet, where all first-timers begin. From 3000 feet, if nothing goes right, one reaches the ground in 30 seconds. First-time student, Rod Skokum, has just departed the plane. He did everything right. What happened what not his fault. Jake, the jumpmaster, kneels in the planes door, watching as the static line briefly tightens, then hangs from the plane. It has not dragged out the tiny canopy that would have dragged out the main canopy.
