

In the second half of the novel AYITI, the epic romance continues from Chapter 29. Dr. Ayiti Jean-Pierre has traveled to Haiti and finds herself battling all of the emotions she is forced to face as she struggles to find her own way in a not-so-familiar culture, a new relationship, and in her relationship with Jesus Christ. She is fighting so much of herself, fighting what God has for her, and fighting the very blessings that she has spent her entire life praying for. Pastor Jude Patterson knows who Ayiti is and why she was sent to Haiti. What he doesn't know is how to help this woman accept the plan God has for her. More importantly, he doesn't know how to help Ayiti accept the truth that God is using to open her eyes. As he struggles to minister to Ayiti, to help her accept the truth about her beliefs and culture, he also struggles to capture her heart. Will Pastor Jude win Ayiti's heart? Will Ayiti surrender to God's desire for her life? And even as God uses him to win Ayiti, in more ways than one, God also reveals the issues that Pastor Jude must overcome in order to become the man, and pastor, God intends for him to be. Can Pastor Jude overcome his own trials and demons and surrender to what God wants to do in his own life? Read the completion of this epic Christian saga as two people learn the truth about God's love, God's purpose, and God's plan.
