

Brother Can You Spare A Dime Synopsis The exploits of an inept and hard luck band of New York City criminals. Led by master thief Lee Gavin and his trusty sidekick Ian Nelson, the group sets out to steal the set of nine 1894S dimes, the most valuable dimes in the world worth fifteen million dollars. With Murphy's Law in full effect, one catastrophe after another befalls the group as the dimes always seem just inches from their grasp, providing close encounters and side splitting laughs along the way. The Cat's In The Cradle Synopsis Lee Gavin and his traveling band of ne'er-do-wells are back with a new caper to pull. Hired by a famous writer to steal an unpublished manuscript from its unknown author so he can claim it as his own, the band sees it as a simple job for easy money. Simple except that the key that unlocks the safe deposit box where the manuscript is kept is around the neck of Felix, the unknown author's family pet cat. Solution, steal the cat, except that Felix, a thirty pound Maine Coon Cat doesn't want to be stolen. From start to finish, nothing in the world of Lee Gavin ever goes according to plan. Dodos Synopsis Lee Gavin and his band of ne'er-do-wells return with a new caper in Dodos. When the egg of the extinct Dodo bird is uncovered on a remote island the scientific world goes mad for the discovery. So mad in fact that two competing teams of scientists claim the prize as their own. Enter Gavin and his faithful band of thieves when one group of scientists hires him to steal the egg from the other. It's a simple job, right? Not in the world of Lee Gavin where nothing ever goes according to plan.
