

Two young siblings find familiar ways to have fun with the help of some BIG flaps and gentle surprises just right for small readers. Who is playing at home today? It's Carrie and Carl, an adorable brother-sister pair who love building (and knocking down) blocks with Mommy, hunting for Daddy behind the curtain, turning a big box into a fast train, and fashioning giant shoes out of baking pans. Using inspiration from her own children, first-time author-illustrator Lois T. Smith invites little ones to peek behind the flaps and find ways to have fun with found objects around the house and a healthy dose of imagination.
