

This is a terrific tale for children of all ages. The whole family will laugh together as Princess Nancie tries to find an outfit to wear as the family heads out for the day. This is the first time her mother has let her pick out her clothes. Princess Nancie is only 4, but she is ready to start taking on the world and become more independent. The book is brought to life by vivid illustrations and rhyming verse. A book that the whole family will enjoy and a lesson the whole family needs to learn.
