

Managers of today seem stuck on single issues or themes in the way they run and plan for their companies. In this groundbreaking book, Robert Heller argues you need the very opposite of single-theme management for survival in the 21st century. You need fusion management, which combines the thrust of Western management for certainty and novelty with the Eastern knowledge that nothing in human affairs is sure, and that management is essentially a human, not scientific activity. Moreover, the fusion manager must accept paradox as part of everyday business life. Thus, fusion management is about blending and combiningâ€”the short, medium, and long term; discipline and freedom; commercialism and humanity; global with local; and taking chances and avoiding great risk.

A General History of the Pyrates: Pirate Captains, Crews, Ships, and Laws, Coping With Loss, The Merchant of Venice: Original Text & Modern Verse (Shakespeare Made Easy Series), Relatos 1, Los - Ritos (Spanish Edition), How to Read Fashion: A Crash Course in Styles, Designers, and Couture, Post-Apocalyptic Nomadic Warriors: A Duck & Cover Adventure, Regina in the Sun (Children of the Goddess),

The basic thesis of The Fusion Manager - that success in business is down to a variety of factors, some of them contradictory - is not exactly.
