

In the charming small town of Cherico, Mississippi, the Cherry Cola Book Club meets to discuss classic Southern literature, sample favorite dishes--and share their unique stories. . . Two wonderful new chapters are unfolding for Maura Beth Mayhew, Chericos librarian. Thanks to her persistence, a new, cutting-edge library is being built on the shores of beautiful Lake Cherico. And come September, Maura Beth will marry Jeremy McShay at his aunt and uncles stunning home. Yet in life, as in fiction, happy endings are hard-won. . . A local politician is trying to divert library funds, while Maura Beths socialite parents insist on a lavish New Orleans wedding. Maura Beth invites them to Cherico to experience the towns laidback appeal--and the book clubs delicious potluck fare. Sadly, not even Voncille Nettles famous biscuits can placate Mrs. Mayhew once the discussion turns from Eudora Welty's The Robber Bridegroom to real-life marriage. To get the wedding and the library of her dreams, Maura Beth will have to harness the indomitable spirit of her favorite Southern heroines--and the sage advice of the Cherry Cola Book Club. . .
