

Brin Skar is trying to get her life back on track. She barely survived the grisly vampire attack in Bodie Ghost Town, the mysterious Paul is now a guest in her own home, and her dad Kristopher, dead for over a year, has emerged from the grave to try to kill her. After two somber funerals and the baffling disappearance of her Film teacher, Brin decides she needs a break from all the pain and heartache. And what's a better escape than a round of golf at the brand new Macabre Golf Course? But as soon as Brin and her friends hit the links, strange noises and bizarre sightings begin to occur. And unfortunately for the group, the vampire encounter is going to seem like child's play, especially when the zombies come out to play! PRAISE FOR THE ZOMBIE PLAYGROUND The Zombie Playground was a super amazing fast-paced read. There's never a dull moment.
